

SUMMER MISSIONS INTERNSHIP

Thanks for your interest in our summer missions internship! Pouring into the next generation of missionaries and church leaders is one of our passions, and this internship is a great avenue for us to do that! At Rock Point, you'll have the opportunity to work alongside a pastoral team that wants to discern how God can use you and where he might send you on mission to make disciples for his glory. Missions interns at Rock Point receive many opportunities to grow in their abilities to evangelize, lead, and develop a culture of sending in the local church. We hope you'll prayerfully consider this opportunity as the next step of your ministry journey.

– Jake Lowe, Missions & Outreach Pastor
